Wholesale Catalogue

A/W 2025

Hello! My name is Rachel and I've been designing and producing illustrated home and paper goods since 2017. Starting off selling just hand-printed art prints at small art markets, over the last 8 years my business has developed into selling paper goods and homewares to customers, independent shops and stockists across the UK.

I create illustrated home and paper goods that are inspired by a range of subjects that bring me joy; from wildlife and the natural world all the way through to food and travel. I aim to raise a smile or a chuckle with all of my designs, either invoking a sense of calm or joy. Starting life as hand-drawn digital illustrations before being transformed into stylish greetings cards and beautiful home decor, all of my designs are hand-drawn and not computer generated, keeping traditional methods alive throughout their production. I insist on using authentic mediums and textures within my work to keep the rustic and playful feel of them present.

With an appreciation for the natural world and a deep passion for our environment, it only made sense to reflect these values in the production of my products too. Over the years, I have worked hard to create a production line of truly sustainable and small batch products that are all printed, packaged and posted from my home studio. My products and their packaging are always recyclable or compostable wherever possible.

I hope you find this seasons' catalogue inspiring and you discover some perfect pieces for your collections this year!

Terms & Conditions

TURNAROUND

Wholesale orders typically take about 1-2 weeks to process, print, package and post to you. As I print all of my paper products in my home studio, times can be reduced where absolutely necessary, but please communicate if this is the case when placing your order. I will try and estimate a turnaround time when initially confirming your order with you, so you know when you can expect your delivery.

SHIPPING

Orders will generally be sent via Royal Mail, unless they are a larger order or I deem the delivery times to be too long around peak times of the year (e.g. Christmas), which is when I would use another courier instead. I reuse whatever packing material I can when packing orders to reduce any waste. Shipping is free for UK Mainland orders over £100.00, otherwise this will be included on your invoice.

RETURNS

All sales are final and non-refundable unless goods are damaged upon receipt. Please report any damages within 2 working days of receiving delivery.

PLASTIC FREE & SUSTAINABLE

I am proud to provide all of my products in plastic free and sustainably sourced packaging and all paper goods to be printed on recycled paper. I print all orders from my home studio to reduce any stock waste and use eco-friendly inks.

ONLINE STOCKING

If you have an online store for your bricks and mortar shop, I am more than happy to be stocked on your online store. If you need product images for your online space then please let me know.
